

Healthy Relationships
Healthy Community
Healthy World

Save These Dates! AINC's 2017 Conferences

Stephen Finn, PhD

February 9th - Raising Children Without Toxic Shame (Without Having to be a Perfect Parent)

February 10-11th - Working With Shame in Psychotherapy & in Psychological Assessment

In this three-day event, Dr. Finn will offer an open to the public evening lecture on Thursday and conduct a two-day intensive workshop Friday and Saturday. Dr. Finn will review contemporary research about shame, outline a theory based in interpersonal neurobiology, and discuss implications for applied clinical work. Stephen E. Finn, Ph.D., founder of the Center for Therapeutic Assessment, is a licensed clinical psychologist in practice in Austin, TX, and a Clinical Associate Professor of Psychology at the University of Texas at Austin.

Tina Payne Bryson, PhD

Co-Author of Whole-Brain Child and No-Drama Discipline

Coming Fall 2017

Dr. Bryson is a psychotherapist at Pediatric and Adolescent Psychology Associates in Arcadia, CA, where she sees children and adolescents, as well as provides parenting consultations. She is the school counselor at St. Mark's School and is a developmental consultant for various organizations. In addition to writing and speaking to parents, educators, and professionals, she serves as the director of parenting education and development for the Mindsight Institute, focusing on how to understand relationships in the context of the developing brain.

More information and registration at
www.austininconnection.org

Austin IN Connection is a non-profit striving to bring powerful concepts about relationships, parenting, and psychological growth to our community by offering trainings, learning experiences, and networking opportunities for both helping professionals and for members of the public. To learn more about our programs go to www.austininconnection.org.

AINC MONTHLY WORKSHOPS 2016

YEAR OF CONVERSATIONS

is a free monthly forum held Friday afternoons held at Twin Oaks Library in South Austin, emphasizing experiential, non-verbal ways of knowing and learning. Presentations focus on the work of helping professionals but all are welcome. CEUs are available free of charge for Austin IN Connection Members, and $20 for non-Members.

October 28, 4-6

Layers of Resource: Incorporating Elements of Comprehensive Resource Model & Art Making

Deanne Miesch, LPC-S, ATR-BC and
Anita Stoll, LCSW, E-RYT

November 18, 4-6

The Satisfaction Cycle: a Movement Sequence that Correlates with How We Show Up in the World and Get Our Needs Met

Wakelyn Malitz, MA, LPC-Intern, R-DMT

FAMILY MATTERS

is a free, family workshop series designed to promote healthy parent-child relationships by providing participants with current information on the science and practice of effective parenting. Parents and their children attend together.

Each workshop focuses on principles that build healthy parent-child interactions and strong emotional development. Presentations are all highly interactive and, at the end of the evening, children join their parents in playful experiential learning.

Family Matters workshops are held in the evenings throughout the year. See the website for dates & location.

Dinner, childcare, and Spanish-English translation provided.

Parenting Series

Peaceful Parenting, Peaceful Children

Thursday, October 27th

Steven Smith, LCSW

How to Regulate Your Own Triggers as a Parent

www.austininconnection.org

